North Georgia Distillery Launches FIFA World Cup 2026 Prediction Challenge and Match Watch Parties in the Ellijays

East Ellijay, GA — May, 9 2026 — House Of Applejay Distillery is inviting soccer fans across North Georgia and beyond to take part in its FIFA World Cup 2026 prediction competition and community viewing experience at the distillery.

The new free online prediction game “Soccer Friends of House Of Applejay Distillery” brings together up to 200 players competing throughout the FIFA World Cup by predicting match scores, tournament outcomes, top scorers, and more. The competition is played through a free online prediction app customized for House Of Applejay Distillery.

Participation is free and intended for friendly entertainment among football fans. Players earn points based on prediction accuracy, including exact scores, winners, goal differences, tournament champion picks, and individual player awards.

Throughout the FIFA World Cup 2026, House Of Applejay Distillery plans to host casual match-viewing gatherings, bringing soccer fans together in the North Georgia mountains to enjoy the tournament atmosphere, cocktails, and community spirit.

“World Cup football has always been about bringing people together,” said Caroline Porsiel, founder of House Of Applejay Distillery. “We wanted to create something fun where friends can compete, watch matches together, and enjoy the excitement of the tournament throughout the summer.”

Everyone age 21 and older is welcome to participate.
