House Of Applejey Releases “Mountain Old Fashioned” – Original Song Now Streaming on Spotify, Apple Music & iTunes

Ellijay, GA — May, 22 2026 — House Of Applejey Distillery, the Southeast’s only liqueur-first distillery, is excited to announce that its original song “Mountain Old Fashioned” by House Of Applejey is now officially available to stream on Spotify, Apple Music, iTunes, and other major platforms.

Originally released on April 11, 2026 as a free download and tribute to the North Georgia mountains, the track captures the spirit of friendship, nature, and those perfect mountain moments. Inspired directly by the distillery’s signature Mountain Old Fashioned cocktail — made with their award-winning Winter Cherry Mountain Liqueur (Double Gold Medal, 2025 San Francisco World Spirits Competition) — the song brings to life the warmth, tart cherry essence, and unhurried joy of Appalachian living.

The smart link above will take you directly to the track on Spotify, Apple Music / iTunes, or your preferred platform. A free download remains available on the House Of Applejey website for personal and social media use.

“Mountain Old Fashioned” is more than a song — it’s an invitation to slow down, raise a glass, and celebrate the simple, unforgettable moments that make mountain life special.

About House of Applejay Distillery:

Located in East Ellijay, Georgia, House Of Applejay is a small-batch distillery and tasting room nestled in the heart of the North Georgia mountains. Specializing in all-natural fruit liqueurs crafted with real fruit and no artificial additives, the distillery is best known for its award-winning Winter Cherry Mountain Liqueur — a Double Gold Medal winner at the 2025 San Francisco World Spirits Competition. This flagship spirit serves as the signature ingredient in the popular Mountain Old Fashioned cocktail, the very inspiration behind House Of Applejay’s new original song of the same name. All spirits are proudly handcrafted onsite in the beautiful Appalachian foothills.
